Camp Registration Form

Summer Camps:

Beginner: Expose your child to two half day sessions with experienced staff. Your child will learn the basics of horse care, health, feeding, saddlery, shoeing, and other on-the-ground basics. Additionally children will learn how to safely groom, lead, saddle, and ride (lead-line only) a horse. First time riders, or riders with little experience will enjoy this summer opportunity. WALK/TROT Camp horses only.

DATES: Beginner Class

8:00- 12:00 Morning Session June 28th and 29th Fee: 100$

or

1:00 – 4:00 Afternoon Session June 30th and July 1st Fee: 100$

Intermediate/Advanced: Intermediate to advanced riders will enjoy this two half day experience. Ride either in the early morning or evening. Four hours of instruction will include horse safety, advanced horse care topics for ground lessons. Riding will include flat work, with stadium jumping and cross country jumping. Size of the jumps will depend on the rider/horse combination experience. Must be able to jump 18 inches at a trot in complete control. Trot/Cantering class. Bring your own horse, or lease a camp horse for this unique opportunity (please call for lease price).
